Supreme Court's directions to Electricity Regulatory Commission

†220. SHRI UDAY PRATAP SINGH:
SHRI KAMAL AKHTAR:

Will the Minister of POWER be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Supreme Court have issued directions to the Electricity Regulatory Commission to the effect that power tariffs would not be increased without a court order; and

(b) if so, the details thereof and the Commission's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF POWER (SHRI SUSHIL KUMAR SHINDE): (a) and (b) The Delhi Electricity Regulatory Commission has informed that the Commission had filed an appeal in the Supreme Court against the Order dated 25.5.2006 of the Appellate Tribunal for Electricity. The issue was regarding payment of depreciation to the Distribution Companies for the years 2002-03, 2003-04 and 2004-05. While the Commission had allowed depreciation at 3.75% for the years in question, the Distribution Companies had asked for 6.69% which was upheld by the Appellate Tribunal for Electricity.

The Appeal of the Commission was taken up for hearing in the Supreme Court on 13.6.2006 wherein the Court had, inter-alia, directed the following:

"The appellant may continue the process of determination as directed by the High Court but no final decision shall be taken without leave of this Court."
